

THE HOMOEOPATHY CENTRAL COUNCIL ACT, 1973

- The Central Council of Homoeopathy has been constituted by the central government under the provisions of Homoeopathy Central Council Act 1973 for following activities:
 - 1.) To maintain the register of physicians of homoeopathy received education in India or abroad.
 - 2.) To prescribe the minimum standards of education required for granting the recognition to the qualification, institutions, etc.
 - 3.) To conduct inspections of institutions for granting recognition or withdrawal of recognition.
 - 4.) Taking action against those physicians who are committed professional misconduct.