

Dr. Utsuk Datta holds MBBS, Diploma in Clinical Pathology and M.D. in Community Medicine (Jiwaji University, Gwalior, MP) is currently serving as Professor and Head of Department, Department of Education and Training. Prior to that he has served One year as Resident Surgical officer in the Department of OB&GY, G.R. Medical College, Gwalior in the year 1983 – 84, Blood Bank officer In the G.R. Medical College from 1984 –85, Research Officer and In-charge of “Comprehensive Maternal and Child Health Care Project” (Multicentric project under Indian Council of Medical and Research) from 1985 – 1991, Lecturer in the department of Education & Training from 1991 – 1996, Senior Lecturer in The Department of Education & Training from 1996 – 2000 and since 2000 is working in the Department of Education & Training as Reader. From 1992 to 1997 he was In-charge of District Health Systems Research of the NIHFw implemented at Gwalior district of Madhya Pradesh. During his 20 years of academic carrier he conducted 8 national level evaluation studies, 6 district level research studies, various training programmes related to Training of Trainers, Leprosy Elimination Monitoring programme and Management training of District level Health Managers. He is recognized thesis supervisor for the Delhi University MD CHA course and till date supervised 5 thesis so far. He is a regular postgraduate teacher of the Institute and also an invitee guest faculty for the other Public Health Institute of the country. He coordinated Post Graduate Certificate course in Hospital Management through distant education. He has drafted Training Policy on health for the State of Bihar and also conducted Training Need Assessment of health care providers of Jharkhand on request of UNICEF Bihar and European Commission Jharkhand.

Dr. Utsuk Datta has attended WHO fellowship programme in Thailand and Vietnam, Childhood Blindness Control programme at London, UK (sponsored by ORBIS) and district health systems research at Nuffield International Health Institute Leeds, UK. He has also attended the TOT programmes conducted by ISTM, New Delhi. He is actively associated with BPNI and IAPSM. He is an expert in the field of training technology, district health systems, and training policy and public health management.

ContactNos.	EPBX: 91 11 26166441, 2615959, 26107773, Ext. No - 314
Direct/Fax	Fax:.91 11 26101623
Email	udatta@nihfw.org