

Dr Sanjay Gupta, M.D. is a medical doctor with a specialization in Community Medicine. He has an experience of more than eighteen years in teaching, training and research in health and family welfare. He has been coordinator of the distance-learning course in Health and Family Welfare management conducted by NIHFW for the past thirteen years. He has had training in Health Policy and Management from Nuffield Institute, U.K. and in HIV estimation –Advocacy and policy from Hawaii, USA. He has been part of many major research studies in India and has been involved in a multitude of training activities for the Institute and state governments. He has also been actively involved in the Annual Sentinel Surveillance for HIV infection, which is being coordinated by NIHFW on behalf of NACO. He is currently working with a team of NIHFW and UNFPA for building Research capabilities in India. He is also looking after the training activities of the institute as Sub Dean (Training).

ContactNos.	EPBX: 91 11 26166441, 2615959, 26107773, 26105743 - Ext- 338
Direct/Fax	Fax:.91 11 26101623
Email	sgupta@nihfw.org